New Town Man Sentenced for Disorderly Conduct

BISMARCK - Acting United States Attorney Lynn Jordheim announced that on July 15, 2010, Carl W. Huff, 49, of New Town, North Dakota, pleaded guilty and was sentenced before United States District Court Magistrate Judge Charles S. Miller, Jr., on a charge of disorderly conduct.

Magistrate Judge Miller sentenced Huff to one year of unsupervised probation. Huff must complete an anger management evaluation and alcohol evaluation and follow through with any recommended treatment. A $5 special assessment was ordered to the Crime Victim's Fund.

On March 21, 2010, Huff was at the Four Bear Casino in New Town with a female companion, and Huff was drinking alcoholic beverages. The two began to argue about Huff sending and receiving text messages from another woman. Upon returning home, the two continued to argue, and Huff grabbed the female by the arms and forced her to the floor where they began to wrestle. Huff began digging in her pockets for the vehicle keys and cellular phone. The female victim's daughter pulled Huff off the victim, and she was able to leave the residence.
